

BUYER BEWARE!

SPRUIKERS ACTIVE IN PROPERTY INVESTMENT INDUSTRY

Did you know the property investment industry in Australia is NOT regulated?

Potentially, hundreds of property investment promoters such as property marketers, real estate agents and so-called property educators are spruiking 'too good to be true' property investment opportunities and you could ultimately pay the price, in terms of a poor investment as well as thousands of dollars in hidden commissions.

Get advice from a source you can trust – deal only with a PIPA member.

- ✓ PIPA members must adhere to a professional 'code of conduct' designed to better protect consumers from rogue operators.
- ✓ PIPA members adhere to a full disclosure policy – no hidden commissions or fees.
- ✓ Dealing with a PIPA member provides you with confidence and peace of mind in knowing you are working with ethical and trustworthy professionals.

Always look for the PIPA logo when dealing with anyone involved in your property investment transaction

To find a PIPA member or QPIA in your area, or to learn more about Australia's peak association for property investment professionals visit www.pipa.asn.au/search

PROPERTY
INVESTMENT
PROFESSIONALS
OF AUSTRALIA

